

Open cooling towers

Options and accessories

Knock down delivery

Knock down involves the cooling tower being delivered customized, in multiple pieces and component kits, before being assembled on-site with the help of a skilled and certified BAC technician.

This service is valuable in confined spaces where cooling tower sections cannot be mounted due to site restrictions.

Need more information on knock down services? Look no further than your local BAC representative.